Jack Mabry (played by Robert De Niro) has only days to go before he can retire from his job as a parole officer. Though he is only days away from retiring he still performs his duty to the best of his ability even when he gets the case of Gerald "Stone" Creeson (played by Edward Norton) who was convicted of arson. Trying to convince Jack Mabry to let him out, Gerald, who likes to be called Stone, has his wife Lucetta (played by Milla Jovovich) to help him convince Jack to let him out. While Jack and Stone have their meetings and talks during the day to work out Stones possible release, Jack and Lucetta are meeting each other at night.
