R

If you know me then you know I'm a hopeless romantic who loves romantic comedies, but Mike Newell's Four Weddings and A Funeral, a much applauded film, is one that I'd never seen before. Seeing it this late in life was a bit more fun seeing as how the entire cast is some familiar face from one of my much loved British comedies or films. You've got Doctor Who guests here and there, actors from The Thin Blue Line, The Vicar of Dibley, John Hannah of Mummy fame, the beautiful Kristin Scott Thomas and of course Hugh Grant and Andie McDowell. It just helped settle me in for a new old film.
