Like most people I am pretty familiar with Edward G. Robinson as the tough (and sometimes soft hearted) gangster type and I had never really seen him in anything but those old gangster flicks other than the obvious titles like Soylent Green or The Ten Commandments. When I received a copy of The Red House and started looking it up on-line I kind of figured it would be interesting to see Robinson in a suspense/thriller/almost horror film but went in still not knowing what to expect.
