Alice has had a hard time letting anyone into her life ever since her father walked out on her & her mother 10 years ago. Jack is yet another man in her long line of boyfriends, but Alice feels this time it will be different and brings him home to meet her mom. After dinner though Jack pulls out a ring and suggests that they go visit his family that night. Scared by how fast things are moving Alice declines and asks him to leave. When she sees Jack taken by some men in suits though she realizes that she has feelings for him and runs after to try and stop them. Through some mishaps and a clumsy fall Alice is dropped into a world she thought only existed in children's books.
