

Astralwerks/EMI's multi-talented new artist NERVO have announced the release of their first single for the label "We're All No One" featuring Afrojack and Steve Aoki. "We're All No One" will be released as a multi-track digital single on September 6th, 2011. It features both their original mix and an edit of the song along with four remixes; NERVO Goes To Paris Remix, Hook N Sling Remix, Dave Aude Club Mix and Jungle Fiction Remix.

"We're All No One" is not only NERVO's first release for Astralwerks/EMI, but also the first commercial release in which the girls (Mim & Liv) step up to the mic to perform the vocals. The song is a marked departure in style and sound from their more underground dancefloor productions of the past year, and showcases a daring new vision, that sets its sights on the future of pop, electro and dance synergies.

NERVO has spent most of the summer opening for Nicki Minaj and Britney Spears on their massive Femme Fatale arena tour while simultaneously playing late night gigs in clubs and jetting to Vegas for their monthly residency with the Wynn Hotel Group. They are now rinsing it on the Identity tour through Sep. 4th, playing the Advent stage (full schedule below). The Identity tour is the biggest traveling electronic music festival in the U.S. and features superstars Kaskade, Steve Aoki, Afrojack, Avicii, DJ Shadow, Skrillex, Chuckie and more. They also recently contributed vocals to their 1st Beatport Number 1 and official Tomorrowland Festival anthem "The Way We See The World", which they co-wrote and co-produced with Afrojack, Dimitri Vegas and Like Mike; a super credible club smash.

1. Black & White Photos or Color Photos?

Let's meet half way with sepia

2. What is your personal motto?

Go hard or go home!

3. Do you feel like you look like any celebrity?

I wish. Would quite like to look like Scarlett Johansson :)

4. State you are in right now?

We're in London, UK

5. Favorite accent?

Mim's is a French man speaking English, and mine's a posh English accent daaaaarling

6. The worst food in the world is...

Pickled herring. Really don't understand how the Swedes celebrate Christmas with it - Blllurrrgg!

7. Have you ever visited a psychic?

Mim has ! I wanted to go after her, because she predicted so many things, but thought I'd blow our cover so never ended up seeing her

8. Favorite movie quote:

Oh, it has to be that line in 'Bridesmaids' where that guy says to the girl straight after they've slept together 'I don't want to be an arsehole but I really want you to leave now' #howcrushing! (I don't think I got the quote right but it's really funny how he articulates himself!)

9. Does sibling rivalry ever interfere with your work?

I can honestly say never. We're a team and are always happy for each other if anything great happens.

10. How did David Guetta come to use the song you wrote "When Love Takes Over"?

We wrote it in a hotel room in about 4 minutes.
