Brief Drug Use, Alcohol Abuse, Language and Some Sexual Content

Kate (Mary Elizabeth Winstead) and Charlie (Aaron Paul, TV's "Breaking Bad") are a young married couple whose bond is built on a mutual love of music, laughter and drinking...especially the drinking. When Kate's drinking leads her to dangerous places and her job as a school teacher is put into jeopardy, she decides to join AA and get sober. With the help of her new friend and sponsor Jenny (Octavia Spencer, The Help), and the vice principal at her school, the awkward, but well intentioned, Mr. Davies, Kate takes steps toward improving her health and life. Sobriety isn't as easy as Kate had anticipated. Her new lifestyle brings to the surface a troubling relationship with her mother, facing the lies she's told her employer (Megan Mullaly TV's "Parks and Recreation") and calls into question whether or not her relationship with Charlie is built on love or just a boozy diversion from adulthood.
