BBC Home Entertainment brings this lush beautiful adaptation of the D.H. Lawrence classic to DVD 4/16 just in time for Mother's Day! Rosamund Pike (Jack Reacher Die Another Day) and Rachael Stirling (Young Victoria Salmon Fishing in the Yemen) star in this powerful adaptation of D. H. Lawrence's novel. Following the banning of his earlier novel The Rainbow D. H. Lawrence shocked his 1920 audience yet again with Women in Love. Combining some elements of both novels this adaptation focuses on the lives of two sisters Ursula and Gudrun Brangwen as they struggle with their own loves desires and passions and relationships with two friends Rupert Birkin and Gerald Crich. As Ursula and Birkin's friendship and love develops Gudrun and Gerald's stormy and destructive relationship begins to spiral out of control.
