According to their Facebook info page, the band Divot is a rock band, it even says a hard rock band, which is closer to what they are than just being a rock band. The music that's being played on the EP "To Shape the Mold" is more metal rock or even a little punk rock than it is anything else. At least when I listen to this three member group out of Elmira, NY, I hear a metal/punk rock set of songs. Though there are not many songs to get the best idea of what this band can do what in those 5 songs I was able to get a decent idea of what kind of style this band likes to play and it's a style that's full of energy, loud vocals, but most of all there is some fun in their songs.
