

Continuing their cartoon shorts from around the world "It's A Small World Of Fun Volume 3" has five new shorts. "Tiger Trouble" has Goofy hunting a tiger, "Pueblo Pluto" when a small dog steals Pluto's bone they both end up in a cactus ring and Pluto needs the small dogs help, in "Alpine Climbers" Mickey, Donald, and Pluto climb the Alps and experience problems with the animals that live there, "Hello Aloha" Goofy leaves the city for the tropics thinking life will be easier until they start looking for someone to sacrifice to the volcano, and you can learn the story of "Johnny Appleseed". However in an odd move by Disney there are no bonus features included. For most kids DVDs this is not a big deal; but with the name Disney behind it is you expect a little more.
